

Just Charity:

2011 Vincentian Family Gathering

What does a Vincentian approach to systemic change look like in today's society?

A day of reflection & empowerment to better serve those who are poor and to work together as Vincentian Priests, the Center for Spirituality at Work, Sisters of Charity and Associates, Colorado Vincentian Volunteers and St. Vincent de Paul Society of Denver.

"Do not rest content with doing good, but do it in the way God wishes; that is to say, as perfectly as you can, making yourselves worthy Servants of the poor."—St. Vincent de Paul is a dynamic Vincentian priest from Columbia, currently serving as the Director of Religious Diversity at De Paul University in Chicago. Memo is much sought after as a presenter and director of retreats. He is a professor in the departments of: Religious Studies, Catholic Studies, Modern Languages and the Masters of Public Service program. He serves as an advisor for Latino youth for the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Fr. Guillermo "Memo" Campuzana, C.M.

Hopes for the Day:

- Inspiration
- Community-building
- Vincentian Friendship
- Spiritual Nourishment
- Responding with Justice

Communion of Saints, Michael O'Neil McGrath, OSFS

Breakout Sessions:

Dr. Vie Thorgren: Just Love

Director of the Center for Spirituality at Work

Sr. Melissa Camardo, SCL: Conversion of Heart

V.P. of Mission, Exempla St. Joseph Hospital

Jamie Van Leeuwen: Foundations

Senior Policy Advisor for Governor John W. Hickenlooper

John Kane: Consequences

Professor Emeritus Regis University

When: Saturday, November 5, 2011; 8:30AM to 3:00PM

Where: Risen Christ Church 3060 South Monaco, Denver Colorado, 80222

Cost: $10 by October 31 or $15 at the door

~Continental Breakfast & Lunch provided~

Name _____ Address _____
City, State, Zip _____ Phone _____
Email _____ Fee enclosed _____

(Or pay by going to www.covivo.org, click on Just Charity and be sure to designate the purpose of your payment.)

Please RSVP by October 31

Mail to: Colorado Vincentian Volunteers • 1732 Pearl Street • Denver, CO 80203 or call 303-863-8141